VAN DIJK, J., MAYHEW, P., and KILLIAS, M., Experiences of Crime Across the World (Rob Mawby) 192
VASS, A. A., Alternatives to Prison: Punishment, Custody and the Community (George Mair) 451
VITO, G. F., and LATESSA, E. J., Statistical Applications in Criminal Justice (Claire Corbett) 324
WADDINGTON, D., JONES, K., and CRITCHER, C., Flashpoints: Studies in Public Disorder (P. A. J. Waddington) 194
WALKER, S., Sense and Nonsense About Crime: A Policy Guide (Bob Roshier) 101
WEATHERITT, M. (ed.), Police Research: Some Future Prospects (Stephen Savage) 440
WEGENER, H., LÖSEL, F., and HAISCH, J. (eds.), Criminal Behaviour and the Justice System: Psychological Perspectives (Claire Corbett) 205
WEIS, R., Criminal Justice (Terence Morris) 86
WHITEHEAD, P., Community Supervision for Offenders (Huw Rees) 313
WILLMOTT, P., Community Initiatives (John Alderson) 103
WOZNIAK, E. (ed.), Current Issues in Scottish Prisons: Systems of Accountability and Regimes for Different Prisoners (Kathleen McDermott) 202
WRIGHT, M., and GALAWAY, B. (eds.), Mediation and Criminal Justice: Victims, Offenders and Community (Tony F. Marshall) 199

SUBJECT INDEX

Articles—a. Notes—n. Reviews—r.

British crime survey: r. 438–40

capital punishment:
  in Britain: r. 86–92
community corrections:
  community service and probation
    r. 95–6
    r. 451–2
  and electronic monitoring: r. 451–2
  and future policy: r. 92–3
  and human rights: r. 455–6
  and probation work: r. 313–14
courts
  Crown, and symbolic space: a. 266–80
  magistrates:
    r. 93–5
    r. 204–5
crime prevention:
  community initiatives: r. 103–4
  and community policing: r. 104–5
  corporate: n. 415–31
  critique of: r. 101–2
  firearms and homicide rates: r. 186–9
  on Hong Kong's mass transit railway: a. 15–27
  and insurance fraud: r. 312–20 strategic planning of: r. 320–1
crime surveys:
  in America:
    a. 72–86
    r. 322–3
  in Britain: r. 438–40
  comparative: r. 192–3
criminal behaviour:
  longitudinal study of: a. 327–47
  see also criminology
criminal justice:
  in America: r. 323–4
  and the application of criminal statistics: r. 324
  and lay workers: r. 314–16
  privatization of: r. 92–3
  in South Africa: r. 435–6
  under the French Third Republic: r. 437–8
criminology:
  Durkheimian: r. 207–8
  psychological:
    r. 102–3
    r. 205–7
  social conflict theory: r. 448–9
  sociological, in France: a. 27–39
  theoretical integration of:
    r. 431–3
    r. 444–9

drugs:
  control policy: r. 105–8
Durkheim: r. 207–8

Federal Bureau of Investigation: r. 100–1
financial penalties: r. 459–60
firearms:
  and homicide rates: a. 186–9
forensics
  see psychiatry

VAN DIJK, J., MAYHEW, P., and KILLIAS, M., Experiences of Crime Across the World (Rob Mawby) 192
VASS, A. A., Alternatives to Prison: Punishment, Custody and the Community (George Mair) 451
VITO, G. F., and LATESSA, E. J., Statistical Applications in Criminal Justice (Claire Corbett) 324
WADDINGTON, D., JONES, K., and CRITCHER, C., Flashpoints: Studies in Public Disorder (P. A. J. Waddington) 194
WALKER, S., Sense and Nonsense About Crime: A Policy Guide (Bob Roshier) 101
WEATHERITT, M. (ed.), Police Research: Some Future Prospects (Stephen Savage) 440
WEGENER, H., LÖSEL, F., and HAISCH, J. (eds.), Criminal Behaviour and the Justice System: Psychological Perspectives (Claire Corbett) 205
WEIS, R., Criminal Justice (Terence Morris) 86
WHITEHEAD, P., Community Supervision for Offenders (Huw Rees) 313
WILLMOTT, P., Community Initiatives (John Alderson) 103
WOZNIAK, E. (ed.), Current Issues in Scottish Prisons: Systems of Accountability and Regimes for Different Prisoners (Kathleen McDermott) 202
WRIGHT, M., and GALAWAY, B. (eds.), Mediation and Criminal Justice: Victims, Offenders and Community (Tony F. Marshall) 199

SUBJECT INDEX

Articles—a. Notes—n. Reviews—r.

British crime survey: r. 438–40

capital punishment:
  in Britain: r. 86–92
community corrections:
  community service and probation
    r. 95–6
    r. 451–2
  and electronic monitoring: r. 451–2
  and future policy: r. 92–3
  and human rights: r. 455–6
  and probation work: r. 313–14
courts
  Crown, and symbolic space: a. 266–80
  magistrates:
    r. 93–5
    r. 204–5
crime prevention:
  community initiatives: r. 103–4
  and community policing: r. 104–5
  corporate: n. 415–31
  critique of: r. 101–2
  firearms and homicide rates: r. 186–9
  on Hong Kong's mass transit railway: a. 15–27
  and insurance fraud: r. 312–20
  strategic planning of: r. 320–1
crime surveys:
  in America:
    a. 72–86
    r. 322–3
  in Britain: r. 438–40
  comparative: r. 192–3
criminal behaviour:
  longitudinal study of: a. 327–47
  see also criminology
criminal justice:
  in America: r. 323–4
  and the application of criminal statistics: r. 324
  and lay workers: r. 314–16
  privatization of: r. 92–3
  in South Africa: r. 435–6
  under the French Third Republic: r. 437–8
criminology:
  Durkheimian: r. 207–8
  psychological:
    r. 102–3
    r. 205–7
  social conflict theory: r. 448–9
  sociological, in France: a. 27–39
  theoretical integration of:
    r. 431–3
    r. 444–9

drugs:
  control policy: r. 105–8
Durkheim: r. 207–8

Federal Bureau of Investigation: r. 100–1
financial penalties: r. 459–60
firearms:
  and homicide rates: a. 186–9
forensics
  see psychiatry

homelessness:
and crime: a. 393–411

juvenile delinquency:
and football hooliganism: r. 211–12
images of: r. 449–50
see also juvenile justice juvenile justice:
and cognitive-behavioural interventions: r. 460–1 and pre-court decision-making: a. 189–92 and supervision orders: r. 95–6 mass media:

and the construction of crime and justice:
a. 219–50
r. 442–4
and moral panics: r. 444–5 Mental Health Act (1959): a. 54–72 mentally disordered offenders:
and special hospitals: a. 54–72
see also Mental Health Act moral panics: see mass media murder cases:
recent, British: r. 86–92

organized crime: see white-collar crime police:

American:
and personnel problems: r. 212 and undercover work: r. 100–1 attitudes to crime and punishment: a. 39–54 and controlling fear of crime: a. 1–15 detectives and crime reporting systems: a. 292–308 detention, and impact of PACE: a. 347–65
and domestic violence: r. 317–19 perceptions of traffic offences: a. 153–65 and public, in England and Wales: r. 438–40 and public order: r. 194–6 race and service delivery: r. 208–9 recruitment and race relations: a. 365–83 research: r. 440–2
stations and lay visitors: r. 456–7 victim communication: r. 311 and victim support in The Netherlands: a. 250–66 see also crime prevention prison:
abolition of: r. 96–8
alternatives to:
r. 92–3
r. 451–2
critique of: r. 308–9
discipline and Woolf: a. 280–92 maximum-security, in Britain and America:
a. 126–53
objectives of: r. 455–6 and prisoner rights: r. 455–6 and prisoner writings: r. 98–9 private: r. 454–5
in Scotland: r. 202–4 suicides and self-injury in: r. 201–2 young men in: r. 316–17
probation service:
r. 95–6
r. 196–8
see also community corrections psychiatry:
forensic: r. 193–4
see also Mental Health Act; mentally disordered offenders public order: r. 194–6

race:
bail hostels and equality: r. 451–2 and street crime: r. 323–4 see also police
rape:
a. 383–93
r. 209–10

social control: r. 433–5 street crime: r. 323–4
suicide:
in prison: r. 201–2

traffic offences:
police and public perceptions of: a. 153–65

victims:
of burglary: n. 411–15
and crime prevention, in The Netherlands:
a. 250–66
and the criminal justice system, in America:
r. 312–13
and the Crown Court: a. 266–80 elderly: r. 192–3
and mediation schemes:
r. 199–201
r. 309–10
and police, in England: r. 311 and support schemes, in Europe: r. 192–3 white-collar crime:

and bank secrecy: a. 109–26
and insurance fraud: r. 319–20
regulation of: n. 415–31
women:
and domestic violence: r. 317–19
and rape:
r. 209–10
a. 383–93
as wives of prisoners: r. 452–3